SUSTAINABLE PRACTISES & ACTIVITIES

- 17 Zero waste Athens
online community, not exact address
It is an online Facebook group and an online community in general that support its members towards the zero waste lifestyle. Most of the actions are taking place online (zoom meetings in the form of Q&A about zero waste and how to implement such actions in our everyday life), but also offline (swap bazaars, vegetarian & vegan cooking workshops, zero waste music festival). Besides that, it is a platform where everyone can share posts sharing knowledge about zero waste hacks and tricks (e.g. more efficient conservation of fruits & vegetables, or even dried nuts), or simply asking questions (e.g. how to compost at home, or in which markets in Athens they can find organic fresh products). Also, they organise online swap bazaars, or sell second hand clothes, furniture and other objects. Youth is mainly coordinating the processes (making posts, engaging people, making research and proposing new topics to be discussed). The preparation needed is in the field of research, finding participants, or venues in case of face to face events.
